Throughout the 1970 school year we have witnessed many aspects of everyday school life: working, laughing, studying, and just being ourselves. We saw students hurrying to classes, cheering at ball games, dancing at parties, and participating in activities. Belonging to the "now" generation, the "1970 EAGLE" is a chronical of that time.

The EAGLE soars with the here and now. It radiates the mood, the times, the spirit, and the energy of the student body during the year of 1970.

Mrs. Russell, best
To the very enjoyed teacher I have. I've enjoyed being in your class this year, but I doubt if you enjoyed me. We caused you a lot of trouble, but its only because we liked you. I think you're a real cool teacher. You're not the kind of teacher that kids hate, but sometimes you rush us too much?!What so great about you is that you're never the same person two most days in a row, that is meant of your hair. you have 5 or 6 wigs. All different colors, But we still love ya!

"Eagle" Dedicated To Mr. Powers

To honor a teacher who has served in the Weatherford High School system for four years, the Eagle staff dedicated the 1970 Eagle to Mr. Harold Powers.

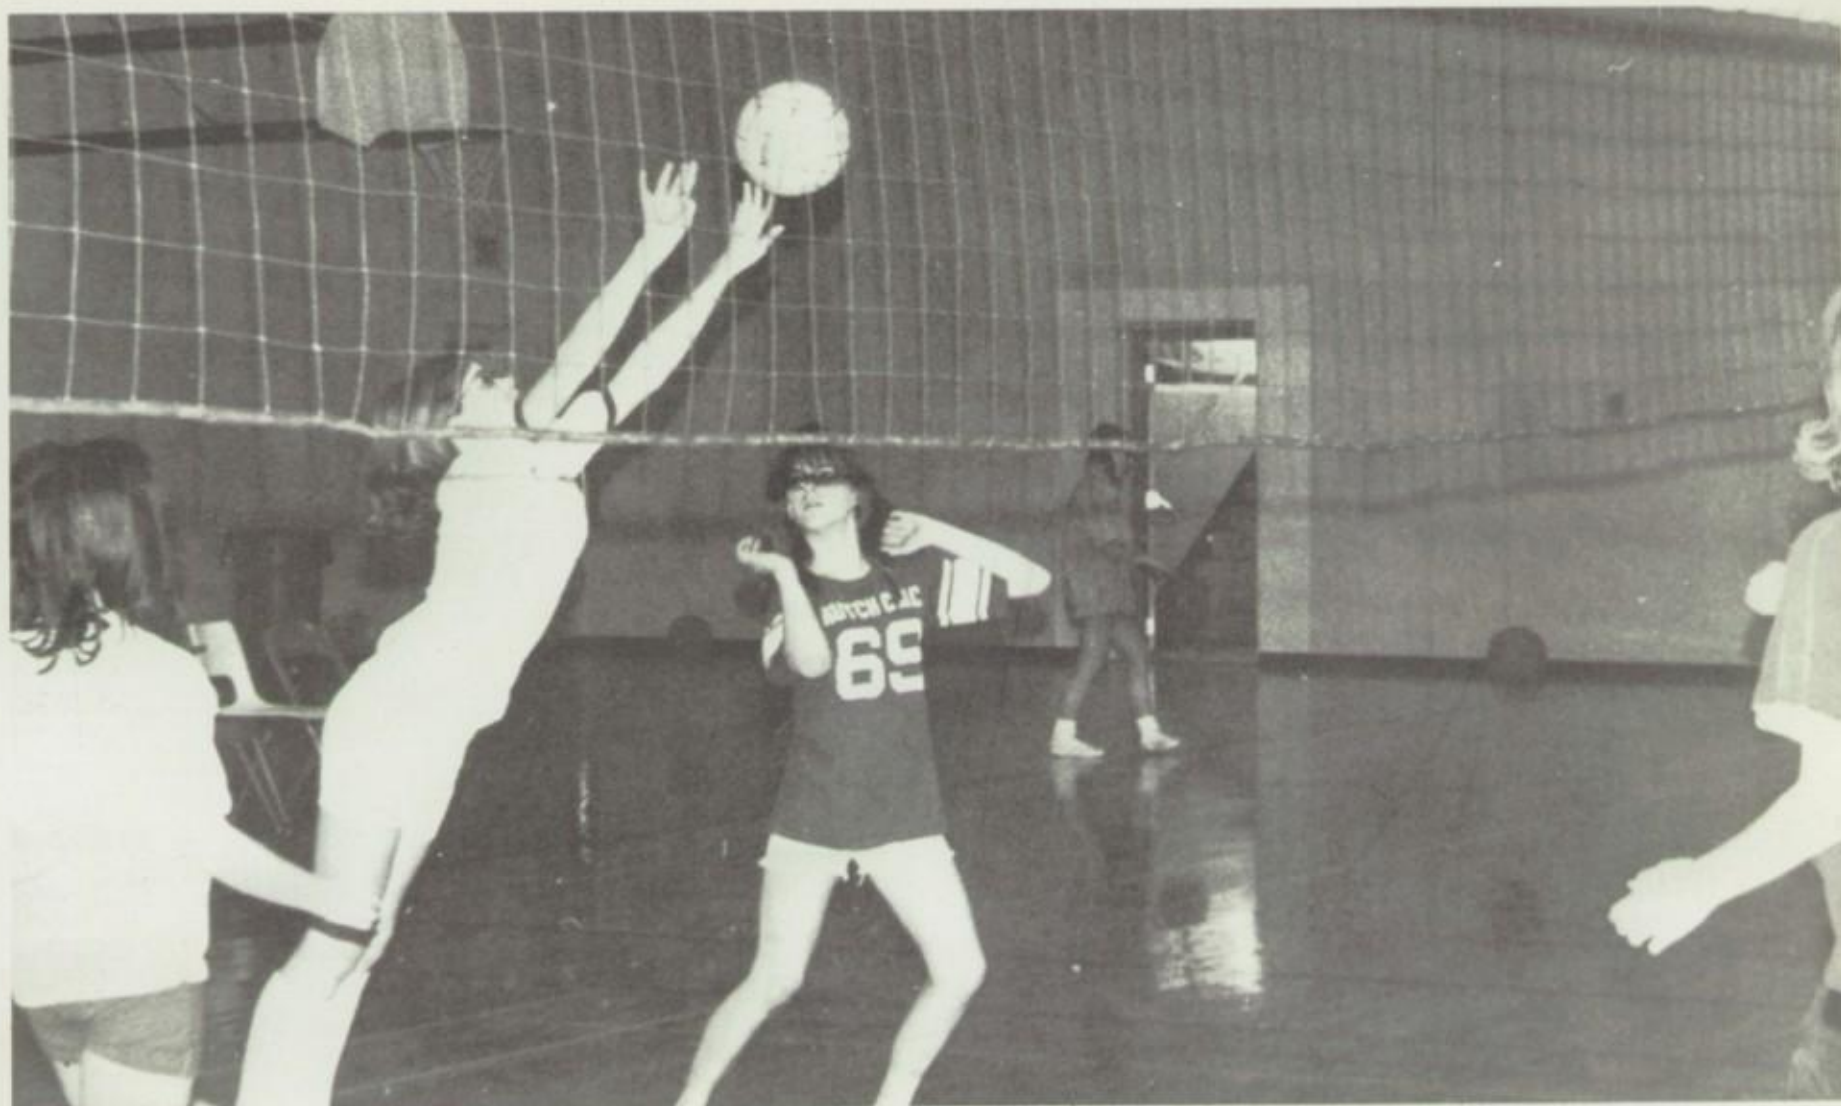

Mr. Powers was born in Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, and graduated from Lone Wolf High School. After high school graduation, Mr. Powers attended Oklahoma State University and graduated from Southwestern State College with a Bachelor of Science degree. Following college graduation Mr. Powers taught at Sentinel, Oklahoma, for four years before coming to Weatherford. Mr. Powers taught biology and chemistry, has been class sponsor and is photography darkroom sponsor. One of Mr. Powers' hobbies was photography, and through that hobby he saw the need for a darkroom in the high school. The darkroom was used for journalism and yearbook classes.

Student Life

Hard Days' Work Ends In Oriental Night

Cheryl Hamm, Rodney Waters, Deloras Ramsey, Jody DeFehr, Jean Jones, and Sue Sylvester performed at the 1969 Junior-Senior Banquet.

Chris LaMunyon, Treva Rowland, and Tommy Tippens ponder over the placement of the 1969 Junior-Senior Banquet place cards.

Trustworthy juniors, Gary Pitts, Sheryl Inman, and Jean Jones, take orders and provide refreshments at the basketball games. Proceeds were used to finance the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Victory Dance Promotes Spirit

Frank Sikes begs for mercy as one of his classmates corners him with a handful of paint after a night of hard work on the Jr. and Sr. banquet.

Found sitting on the lawn in front of the high school building, supposedly studying, are Edith Waggoner, senior and Jody DeFehr, junior.

Jose Moralez poses patiently as the art class uses their newly learned techniques in portrait painting with acrylic medium.

A.M. Exercises Begin

For the first time in the history of Weatherford High School, students have participated in morning exercises. The flag salute, Bible reading, and daily announcements were given over the intercom.

Entertaining the large crowd during half time at the Powder Puff football game are Cowgirl cheerleaders Jerry Butler and Bill Miller.

Sheryl Inman and Pam Swinehart are rapidly preparing Sheryl's make-up before performing on stage for the Pop Concert by mixed chorus.

Moods Change After Three-Thirty

Attending classes in both the high school and junior high building are sophomores, Diana Jones, Debbie Redinger, Kathy Resler, Jan Kiehl, Quannah Smith, Jackie Huckabay, and Nancy Tindel.

Student Life On The "Go"

Selecting their awards for selling the most magazines are Lyle Gilworth, second; Carmen Bailey, first; and Rolan Monigold, third.

Representing WJHS in the 1969 Southwestern Homecoming parade are the junior high cheerleaders, Sue Kiehl, Mary Jo Dillard, Marilyn Smith, Vicki Stroud, and Jan Bond. Not pictured is Lisa Morris.

Demonstrating the fun that one can have by throwing snowballs at unconcerned classmates, are seventh graders Alan Harrelson, Terry Inselman and Tom Ray.

In the play presented at the Christmas program, Candy Jarvis seems to be asking Brian Fox, "Just who do you think you are?"

Dark Room Aids Publications

The 1969-70 school year started with many new and useful improvements. In the high school a dark room was installed adjacent to the journalism room to aid photographers with picture developments for "The Eagle," and "Eagle Echos." Another major addition was a new counselor's office and reception area. Mrs. Edwardine Garrison is Weatherford's first full-time guidance counselor.

Among numerous improvements added to the elementary schools were seven new classrooms at both East and West schools. A titmus eye machine was purchased to test the students' eyes.

Appearance of the library changed this year by new bookshelves which were added to accommodate the purchase of more than one thousand books. Carpet was laid to instill quietness.

Weatherford School Board for 1969-70 is Charles Kramer, member; Clarke D. Denney, member; Steve Stroud, president; Bob Ramsey, member; Ray Pebley, vice-president.

Making the most of their first year as secretaries in the administration building are Mrs. Elaine Penner and Mrs. Leeta Bell Harris.

Learning to read is an easy thing to do for third graders under Mrs. Edna Willis. She goes over the reading material thoroughly before sending it home with her pupils.

Mrs. Charlie Wheeler, during her daily art session which includes coloring and construction, is showing one of her first grade students how to hold scissors properly.

Preparing for a career in elementary education, Roy Masuda practices methods of teaching in Mrs. Sauer's fifth grade class.

Classrooms Added To Elementary Schools

Teachers at West Elementary School are, front row: Mrs. Jimmie Ruth Kelly, language improvement arts; Mrs. Geraldine Sauer, fifth; Mrs. Judith Colclassure, second; Mrs. Goldie Hays, second; and Mrs. Bernice Sensintaffer, fourth. Back row: Mr. Kenneth Johnson, sixth and assistant principal; Mrs. Olene Tyler, third; and Mrs. Mary Lee Brooks, first.

Serving hot lunches for the Thompson Junior High and Weatherford High Schools are Mrs. Ada Thompson, Mrs. Mae Ardnt, Mrs. Joanne Lindsey, and Mrs. Velma Bradley, supervisor.

Non-Teaching Staff

Office Helpers' Load Lightened By Intercom

Randy Devine, Chris LaMunyon, Debrah Dacus, Deborah Dibler, and Kathy Butler, are planning their hourly schedule for duties as office helpers in the high school office.

Mr. John Duncan and Mr. Harold Bradley, custodian supervisor, find the high school steps a perfect place for repairing the street light.

Organizations

Elected by band members to serve as their band queen is Cathie McPhetridge. Serving as attendants were Jo Ellen Short and Sharla Inman.

During the rain-chilled SWSC homecoming parade, senior, Cathie McPhetridge personifies the band's perseverance.

Early morning during football season, the Weatherford High School marching band was found practicing on the west field. The hard work paid off with the top rating in its class at state marching contest. One of the highlights of the year was O.U. Band Day, when Weatherford High performed with nine other bands at half-time during the game. Other activities in which they participated were the state fair and parade, SWSC homecoming and state concert contest.

Sixth row: Chuck Vaughan, Alan Harrelson, Ricky Rhoads, Brad Kiehl, Weldon Kissler, Louis Olson, Terry Blough, Carmen Ellis.

The members of the Weatherford High School stage band ready themselves and wait with anticipation prior to one of their performances before the student body.

1969-70 was a very busy year for stage band. Under the direction of Mr. Terry Segress, the twenty-one member band played for numerous activities. The band entertained the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs as well as performing for other schools. Several of the highlights of the year were the Jazz Festival in February, the state contest in April, and Tri-State contest in May.

F.F.A. Has New Building

The 1970 Weatherford F.F.A. began their activities for the year in a new building. Equipment in the building included an individual gas and electric apparatus, an exhaust system and a room designed explicitly for painting.

The F.F.A. received several honors this year. Several boys attended the F.F.A. National Convention and American Royal in Kansas City where Tim Goss played in the F.F.A. Band.

FFA officers are Doug Tippens, Student Council representative; Gary Christensen, reporter; Steve Trotter, president; Darrell Brown, secretary; and Clifford Zook, sentinel. Not pictured is Tommy Tippens, vice-president.

Chosen to represent the Future Farmers of America for 1970 is senior, Phyllis Corlee.

Demonstrating the vital importance of good grooming and cleanliness for a winning entry, Steve Trotter is preparing a calf for the Custer County Stock Show.

Freshman members are, front row: Debbie Egerton, Nedra Hadley, Camilla Thomason, Eva Hubert, Doreen Jefferson, Karen Burgess, Betty Harrall, Margaret Wray, Sheila Triplett. Second row: Kerry Leach, Cherokee Clark, Sharon Inman, Jeanna Kroll, Lecann Wood, Sue Shrum, Denise Bryan, Beverly Hawkins. Third row: Vinita Albin, Mary Hensley, LaDonna Graves, Marilyn Smith, Mary Jo Dillard, Vickie Stroud, Jan Bond, Tricia Schutes, Cindy Garrison, Sheila Orange, Gayla Klaasen, Carmen Bailey, Connie Parrett, Susan Guajardo, Brenda Campbell.

Striving to obtain the goal set by the 1969-70 Program of Work, the WHS chapter of F.H.A. has learned much to help its members in future years. Objectives in the program suggested activities so that problems at home and in the community could be recognized and improved. The installation of 1969-70 officers and initiation of new members was held in November.

Chorus Has "Pop" Night

For the first time in several years boys' chorus was organized in WHS. Combining their talents with the girls chorus' talents, Mr. Robinson, director, produced a mixed chorus.

The mixed chorus amazed the high school with their talents at the Pop Concert and continued to enchant the student body at the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Spring Concerts.

The girls' sextet and boys' quartet performed at many civic clubs during the year. Second semester the mixed chorus attended the district contest at SWSC. Entering separately at the contest were the ensembles and soloists.

Jackie Huckabay and Erich Olds portray two characters in the mixed chorus' musical skit which was presented for the Christmas program.

Junior high chorus, consisting of both boys and girls, performed for many contests and civic clubs during the past year.

Under the direction of Mr. John Robinson, the chorus presented a Pop Concert. They presented the music segment of the Christmas program for junior-senior high schools.

During the second semester, the mixed chorus was kept busy performing at various contests. During February the Boys' Festival was held in Altus, and the girls' ensemble contest was held at S.W.S.C. Ending the year they presented a spring concert.

Mixed Chorus Presents "Pop Concert"

Eagle Echos

Wins "Highest Honors"

The purpose of journalism was to publish the "Eagle Echos," which is a weekly addition to the Weatherford News. This year the publication of the "Advertiser," published by private businessmen, put a heavy burden on the journalists by giving them the task of supplying articles for both newspapers.

Two events attended by the journalists were the O.I.P.A. Conference where they won the superior award of "Highest Honors" for their newspaper, and the Summer Workshop which is sponsored by the Journalism Department at the University of Oklahoma.

FJA officers are Brad Berrong, president; Ruth Witcher, secretary; Maurine Clark, Student Council representative; and Jody DeFehr, vice president.

Callie Strong and Cathie McPhetridge, members of the journalism staff and editors of the school paper, "Eagle Echoes," look over clippings from previous issues of the paper.

N.H.S. members are, front row: Callie Strong, Ruth Witcher, Jean Jones, Jane Hassinger, Judy Motely, Michelle Klaassan, Debbie Ollenberger,

N.H.S. Gives "Pot Luck" Supper

Enjoying the "pot luck" dinner are members of N.H.S. The dinner was held during the January meeting at the home of Ruth Witcher.

N.H.S. officers are Jim Hooper, Tommy Tippens, Jane Hassinger, Mike Moser, and Glendall Monigold.

The 1969-70 Weatherford Chapter of National Honor Society, consisting of eighteen members, had five meetings during the school year, one of which was a "pot luck" supper held during January. During spring, two of their activities consisted of a teacher's tea and the annual spring picnic.

NHS consisted of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who maintained a 3.5 or higher grade average. These officers were chosen to serve during the year: Tommy Tippens, president; Mike Moser, vice-president; Jane Hassinger, secretary; James Hooper, treasurer; Glendall Monigold, student council representative. Their sponsor was Mrs. Helen Hackworth.

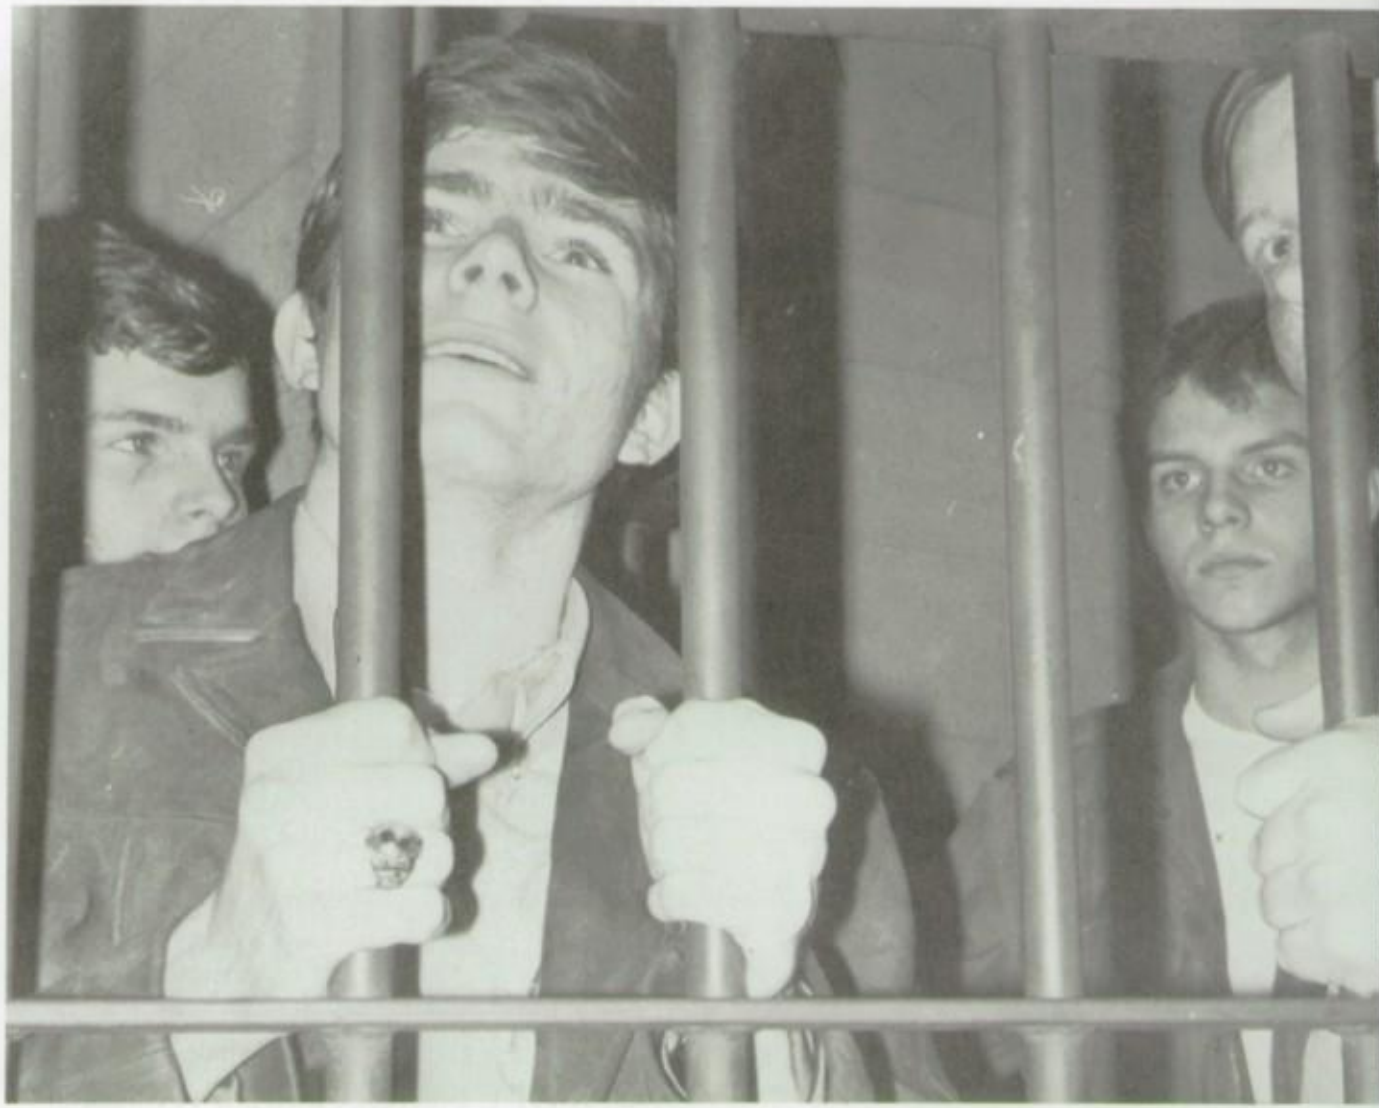

Speech Presents Courtroom Drama

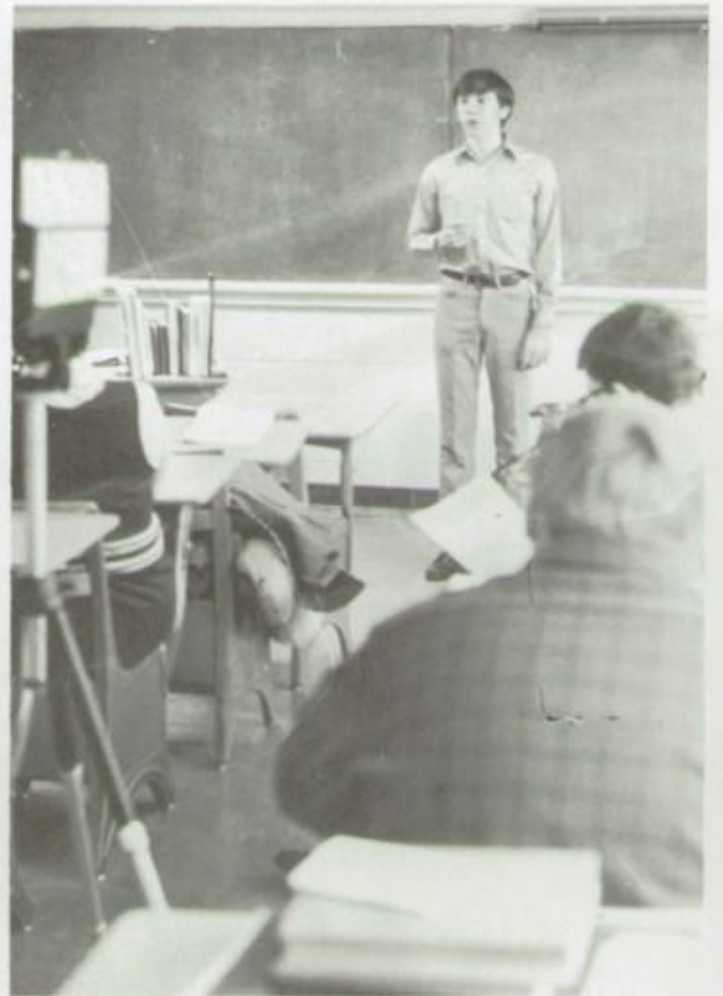

The speech department under the direction of Mrs. Betty Novak participated in contests, assemblies and performed several plays throughout the year.

During the first semester methods of preparing speeches were studied. A three-act play entitled "The People vs. Maxine Lowe," was presented for the school. Proceeds from the play were used by the speech department for purchasing contests and classroom materials. All facets of drama were studied during the second semester. An assembly consisting of one-act plays was presented by students from three speech classes. To raise money for the junior class, "A Night of One Acts," performed by speech students, was presented by the speech department.

Also during the second semester, students went to contests held at Classen High School and Southwestern State College and to Regional Speech Contests. Participation in contests was strictly volunteer, and all high school students were allowed to enter.

Practicing for contest on the cutting, "Sorry, Wrong Number," is Treva Rowland.

Using the closed-circuit Television helps Garland Egerton to perfect his original oration for speech contests.

Attend Camp

Eagles have GO-O-O-O Power! With picket signs, the Spirit Stick and soul the cheerleaders for 1970 urged the Eagles to Victory. The summer days started early for cheerleaders who met at 7:00 each morning.

Activities for the cheerleaders and Miss Stuckey, sponsor, included making a megaphone, canvas hoop, picket signs, and the Spirit Stick which was given to the most spirited class each week. Cheerleaders Nix, Smith and Sylvester attended a camp at Lubbock, Texas, in June.

The 4-H Club this year is small in number, but large in number of projects. The members of the club are Henrietta Guajardo, Linda Gathers, Darla Ollenburger, Sheryl Sauer, Debbie Crowl, Roxana Olson, Patricia Harris, Joel Tippens, and Joe North.

Council Sponsors Variety Shows

Representing WHS as well as activating school activities were some of the many responsibilities of the Student Council. Aiding the North Central Evaluation team during their early December visit, the council proved worthy of their cause.

Included in the council projects were sending letters of evaluation to various surrounding basketball and wrestling teams, choosing Eagle boy and girl of the month, editing and publishing monthly newsletters to inform students of council activities, sponsoring the last football game dance, organizing variety shows given monthly by the different classes, and serving on a dress committee for revision of the dress code, which for the first time, permitted girls to wear slacks during the months of January and February.

Performing his duties as Student Council president, Tommy Tippens finds many rewarding challenges and experiences dealing with the problems faced by the students.

Loading up for their trip are Student Council members Tommy Tippens, Quannah Smith, Nancy Tindel, Chris LaMunyon and Jo Short, who attended the Oklahoma Student Council Convention.

The Student Council members are, front row: Brian Leonard, Chris LaMunyon, Jo Short, Tommy Tippens. Junior High Student Council

Magazine Sales Highest Ever

Members of the junior high Student Council evaluate the old sidewalk and dream of what the new one will look like.

Sandra Butler is selling a magazine to help bring in the total of $3000.00 during the October magazine sales.

As members of the junior high Student Council, Larry Adler and his co-workers planned many worthwhile projects for the year. Having sponsored the magazine sales in October, they received $1200.00 of the earnings. This money was used for their main project of the year which was the construction of a new sidewalk in front of the junior high.

Aside from their main project, the Student Council built a float for the SWSC Homecoming Parade, elected two citizens of the month, hosted the Junior High Custer County Basketball Tournament, and sent their officers to the State Junior High Student Council Convention in Norman.

'69 "Eagle" Awarded Highest Honors

The Eagle staff had a hard time assembling a yearbook to meet the qualifications of their "highest honor" winning book of last year with only six members returning from the original staff.

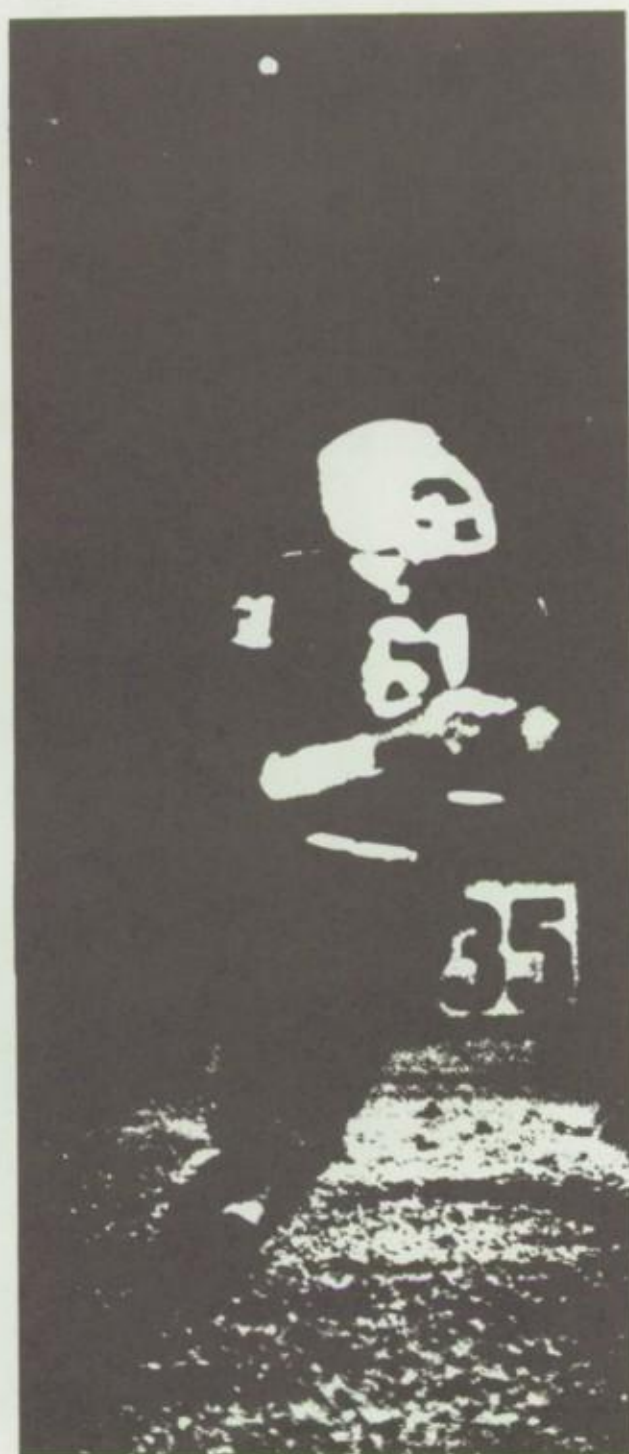

Eleven staffers attended the OIPA workshop held in Norman, Oklahoma this summer during June, to prepare and plan for this year's yearbook. Miss Dummy Award, an award given by the I.O.P.A. to the most congenial person at the workshop was received by both Diane Pitts and Deloras Ramsey of the Eagle staff of 1970.

Photographers for the 1970 "Eagle" are Jim Hooper, Brad Berrong, Maurine Clark, James Sauer, and Gene Mouser. Not pictured is Tom Wildman.

Looking over a proof sheet to select the best picture, are Suzanne Self and Brad Berrong, yearbook photographer.

At times the only thing a football coach can do is watch and hope. This is what head coach Carl Smith and assistant coach Jim Colclassure are doing as the Eagles prepare to execute another play against a formidable foe.

Representing the 1969-70 "fighting Eagles" football squad is Queen Kathy Butler, center, and her attendants Susan Atkinson and Sheryl Inman. The three were chosen by the junior class who won the football ticket sales.

Weatherford's Fighting Eagles had, to say the least, a disastrous season this year. Starting the season with an already small squad, the Eagles lost 11 key players due to injuries, most of which took place early in the year. After eight games, the number had dwindled down to fourteen players, but "the dirty dozen," as they were known by their fans, refused to quit. Determined to finish the season, the Eagles fought through the last two games and left the field unashamed, with their heads held high. The season was certainly not a total loss because every player on the squad gained some much-needed experience that should make next year's season more successful.

Representing all sports, "E" Club officers are Mike Moser, secretary; Glen Monigold, president; Frank Sikes, vice-president; Jody DeFehr, parliamentarian; and Dom Garrison, treasurer.

Eagle Opponents

Clinton	Sayre
Thomas	Watonga
Geary	Burns Flat
Hobart	Carnegie
Cordell	Hennessey

Eaglets Gain Experience

Reigning as junior high football queen for the year 1969-70 is Beverly Hawkins. She was chosen over two other candidates, Kerry Leach and Sharon Inman who represented the freshman class.

Eaglet defender Trey Minton brings a Thomas ball carrier to an abrupt halt as teammates Bobby Bailey and Mike Bruce move in for the kill. The Eaglets won that game to end the season on a high note.

The attention-getting Weatherford High School basketball team sparked by two sophomore and three senior starters was a crowd-gathering team. Due to the short size of the players the team had to use the fast break, to press, and to play aggressive ball.

Coach Roger Pryor and Jerry Ratliff along with the assistance of Jack Olson, team manager, turned out a team that played the type of game that interests both audience and player. Pre-game warm-ups were as exciting as a three ring circus. Wearing new warm-ups and using red, white, and blue basketballs, the team put on an impressive show.

Eagles Acquire New "Warm-Ups"

Dom Garrison successfully attempts to halt a determined Burns Flat Eagle player while Charles Killman and Mike Smith guard the opponent in order to attain a victory.

Holding positions as basketball royalty for 1970 are Jo Ellen Short, senior attendant, Kathy Smalley, queen, and Nancy Tindel, sophomore attendant.

Eaglets Win County Tourney

Baseball Attempts To Uphold Tradition

With determination in his eye, Dom Garrison takes a mighty swing as an opposing pitcher slips one by him.

Alan Hunnicutt, baseball manager, and Jack Olson, basketball manager, relax and compare notes of the year's events.

Garland Metzger. Third row: Tony Hooper, Mike Lockstone, Ricky Schmidt, Danny Killman, Dee Duewall, Brian Fox, Tom Griffith, Calvin Teasley.

Doug Hale, Neal Wayman, David Stevens, Rocque Gagnebin. Third row: Mike Bruce, Douglas Brown, David Harrelson, Kim Brown, Orin Sage, Dwight Holcomb, Rodne Gagnebin, Kirby Snider, Mike North.

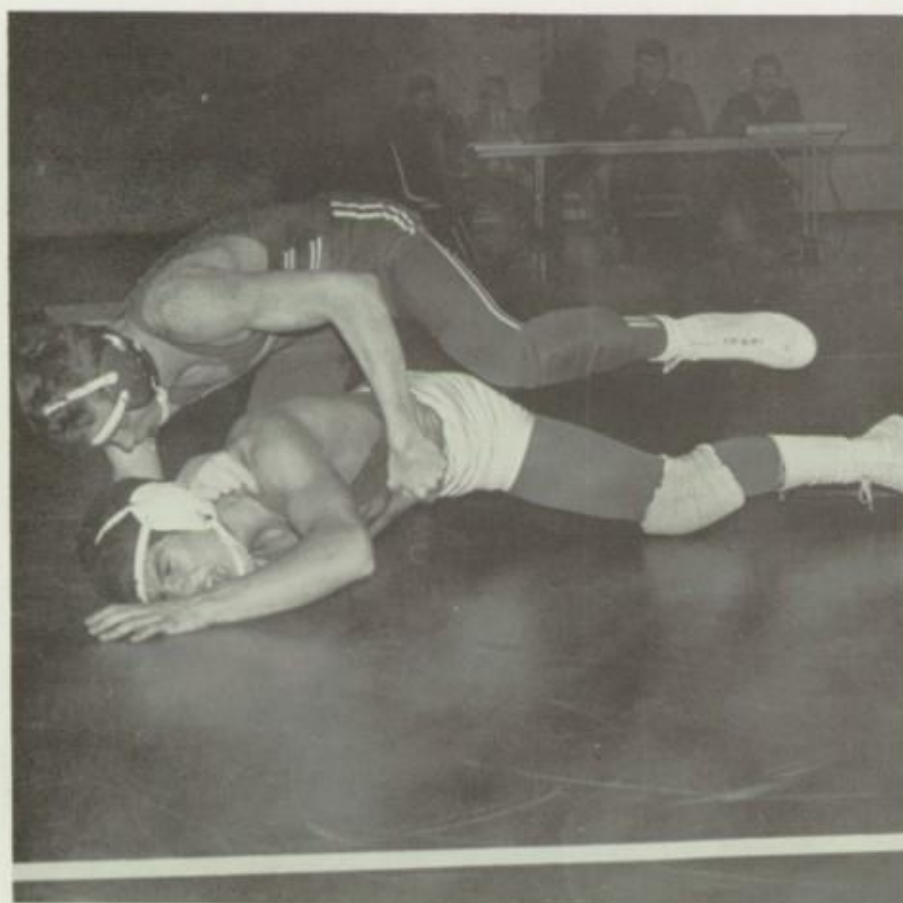

Members Place At Tourneys

Discussing activities in GRA's are officers: Carol Kelly, president; Phyllis Corlee, Student Council representative; Brenda Myers, secretary-treasurer; and Kathy Butler, vice-president.

Classes

Seniors '70

Their last year in Weatherford High had left them with many memorable, mixed emotions and feelings. This year had been one of triumph and defeat. As seniors of the class of 1970, they shouldered many responsibilities. They were the officers for most organizations, and they endeavored to live up to the standards which have been set for every senior class. They parted from high school, leaving behind their additions and ideas with the hope that they, the class of 1970, will never be forgotten.

Halloween Carnival Adds To Treasury

A task taken by the ambitious juniors was setting up a dunking stand at the Athenian Halloween Carnival at the Community Building. The proceeds amounted to thirty-four dollars.

Working against chilly winds and unpredicted rains made the juniors' job a bit harder this year. At each home football game they could be seen operating the concession stand at the Milam Stadium; bright and early Saturday morning the juniors could be found sweeping and picking up the debris thrown by the excited fans. But that was only the beginning of their duties, for they also kept the concession stand at the basketball games and wrestling matches.

The highlight of their junior year was the 1970 Junior-Senior Banquet given for the graduating seniors by the junior class. The banquet will be remembered by all.

Football queen candidates are Susan Atkinson, Kathy Butler, and Sheryl Inman. The queen candidates were chosen from the junior class after winning the season football ticket sale. Selected to reign as football queen for the 1969-70 school year is Kathy Butler.

Cleaning the stands of Milam Stadium after an exciting night of football are juniors: Debbie Stroud, Clifford Short, and Pam Swinehart.

Reminiscing over the outcome from the football ticket sales are Patti Westmoreland and Gregory Stotts. The ticket sales were won by the junior class.

Acknowledging their first year in high school as a very beneficial year, the sophomore class of 1969-70 accepted many of the growing responsibilities which were to be conquered during the year. A few of the highlights of the year were taking the California Mental Maturity Test and the Iowa Tests of Educational Development. Helping present the program for the Junior-Senior Banquet provided a memorable entertaining activity for the sophomores. Class sponsors were Mrs. Evelyn Brown and Mrs. Avis Leach. Officers: Ron Stotts, president; Gary Amen, vice-president; Mike Smith, secretary-treasurer; Barbara Arney, Student Council representative were elected to represent the class for their leadership ability.

As high school counselor, Mrs. Edwardene Garrison instructs and administers the California Mental Maturity Tests to the sophomore class.

Testing the new driver's education car, Quannah Smith and Nancy Tindel eye the fascinating experiences they will face in the near future.

Helping the 1969-70 freshman class with their many activities are their class sponsors Mrs. Taggart and Mr. Crall.

For the first time in recorded history, the freshman class won the right to choose the football queen, Beverly Hawkins.

Eighth Grade Honors Veterans

Reminiscing over the past year, the eighth graders found their year to be a very prosperous one.

For Veteran's Day, the eighth grade put up posters, decorated the halls with streamers and played music in the classroom in honor of the veterans. The Veteran's Day activity was sponsored by the junior high history teachers.

At Christmas they put on a play entitled "Reindeer On the Roof" which was directed by Mrs. Zoie McClendon.

A class party celebrated the ending of the 1970 school year.

Leading the eighth grade class are Mike Lockstone, Suzi Petrowsky, Jo Martin, and Bobby Bailey.

Seventh Elects

All Males

Under the capable leadership of their class officers: Monty Bottom, president; Pat Fry, vice-president; Bert Belanger, secretary-treasurer; Kevin Hill, student council representative and with the excellent advice offered by their sponsors Amzi Gregory and Dyann Koch, the seventh grade class showed great potential for future years.

Though they did not win the football season ticket sales, they out-sold previous sales winners by a considerable margin and showed a great deal of enthusiasm while doing so.

Pictured are the seventh grade officers for 1969-70: Bert Belanger, secretary-treasurer; Pat Fry, vice-president; Monty Bottom, president. Not pictured is Kevin Hill, student council representative.

Mrs. Russell,

You're the sweetest teacher I've ever known.

I appreciate all of the times you've given me someone to talk to. I'll always remember the things you did for me while I was in high school.

Good luck in the future and please write me when I go away. Be good and take care.

Love ya,

Tom (a170)

P.S. you're the best looking teacher in U.H.S.

Mrs. Russell

Do the greatest teacher

there could ever be. My senior P.E. class was the greatest class I've had in twelve years. You made school something special to me and I'm really enjoyed it. I only wish I could go to & wrap this summer with ya.
It would be a blast. You're the best when it comes to just ride. I need not wish you luck because you've got it. I'll always be thinking of you through the years. I hope you never forget the times in P.E.

Love & Luck,
Alec & Roberta

Mr. Russell;
I am a girl with a great personality. You're one of the best teachers in W.H.S.
I only wish there were more like you.
You have the spirit and enthusiasm much desired by the other teachers. I want to wish you all the luck in your bright future ahead.
Yours,
Phyllis Su 170
